

From: Paul Lewis
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/28/02 8:59am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Microsoft has twice been found guilty of serious violations of the Sherman Antitrust Act, by a federal District Court and by the United States Court of Appeals.

Any settlement of this case with the US Justice Department must not allow Microsoft to continue its monopoly practices. To do so would seriously dampen software innovation in the United States and threaten our global economic competitiveness.

Paul H. Lewis
Government Documents Librarian
USC Aiken Library
Aiken, SC 29801
<http://library.usca.sc.edu>
803-641-3320